TEMPTOR COVEN

Dreyg > Dreyg > World Encyclopedia > Magics > Witch Covens of Dreyg > Temptor Coven

The Meretrix is a brothel located in Praefecti run by the Temptor Coven, overseen by Head Madam Hadriana. Those that wish to join the coven as a full fledged witch must undergo a hiring process where they show off their talents and what they have to offer the immortal coven of some of the finest courtesans on Dreyg.

Those that want Derveni citizenship can also go through the brothel, but the Madams are picky. If they sense even a sliver of a chance that a future witch's heart is not into the passion of sex and instead seeking this route out of desperation then they will not be chosen. This is a path for the study and love of sex not pressuring those inflicted with dire circumstances.

Temptor Madams are extremely wealthy and influential due to the brothel, most times if a desperate Dreygsin looking for work and safety in Derveni lands they are able to find work for them in the brothel as a groundskeeper, caretaker, chef or guard etc etc. They are capable of employing more than just courtesans.

The Meretrix is an impressively massive building with long marble columns upfront, exciting wooden balconies and a cascading waterfall upon the brothel's lands that feeds into a clear pond.

Upon entering the Meretrix the patron will be given a choice of necklace jewelry to wear on the grounds which states their preferences and what they would be looking for. (A marine blue gem for those seeking to be dicked down, a vibrant red gem for wanting to top, a white gem for just cunnilingus or massages, a dazzling sunstone gem for those wanting more kink and a special three sea pearl necklace for those looking for more... Coerth extremes.)

There are several sections of the Meretrix to have fun in, the main hall has individuals whose nights you can pay for and they can be your personal guide. It is not necessary to have a guide but they are more hands on, incredible conversationalists with plenty of stories to share and just as proactive listeners.

From there one may choose to go to the bath house that comes with several smaller steam rooms, some of which are reserved for private parties and others that are more open to anyone wanting to slip in for a steamy session. The pools are more taken care of, the water constantly cycled through an underground water reservoir of ocean water that mixes with the cave's cleansing minerals and is meticulously run into the Meretrix pools, the old water leading to a drain that flows into a river leading back into the ocean.

The gardens of the Meretrix are always tended to by handmaids that refill drinks and supply food for the patrons. There is a flower garden with several benches, long hedges act as a small form of privacy but not much is granted.

The small natural pond makes for a good place to sit and watch. Closer to the smaller waterfall there are big smoothed rocks that individuals can perch on and share in each other's company.

The Meretrix has an outside theatre where those skilled in dance perform, sometimes taking lucky volunteers on stage but that is mostly saved for the kink performers that lavish a crowd in their special talents, showing off what their magic is capable of. Many beloved singers within the whole of Derveni perform at the Meretrix and are paid quite handsomely for a great show.

The Meretrix Brothel is a shining gem of innovation, sexual education and just a fun time.

The basements of this Coven have the Madams working away on their individual magics, seeing what feels the best and keeping extensive records of the work they have done. They also have studied incredible ways to help those that are having trouble producing litters, able to brew up fertility potions or even temporary potions for those that are seeking a... bigger time.

These witches pledge themselves to the art and study, they are accepting of all types of individuals and are paid handsomely for their work. Each Madam has a large home herself but every courtesan is given room and board as a base part of their wage with guards (typically ex-soldiers) at the wait should a guest become a little too attached or rowdy.
